

Lyman Homestead

A landmark in Middlesex County for over 260 years, the historic Lyman Homestead is the perfect choice for those seeking a classic New England experience.

Built in the 19th century on land that has been in the Lyman family since 1741, the Lyman Homestead was the private home to generations of the Lyman family until the year 2000 when it ceased to be a private home and became available for meetings, engagement parties, rehearsal dinners and celebrations of all kinds.

corporate events

With a floor plan that can easily accommodate multiple breakout sessions and with close proximity to the Golf Courses at Lyman Orchards (ranked as one of the top ten courses in Connecticut) the Lyman Homestead is a great place for business meetings, company picnics or corporate retreats.
